

LES
MÉDAILLONS D'OR
DU TRÉSOR D'ARRAS

OUS venons d'avoir la bonne fortune d'acheter la part du propriétaire de la fameuse trouvaille de monnaies Romaines faite à Beaurains-lès-Arras en Septembre 1922.

Ce trésor comprenait — sans parler des bijoux ni des aurei — neuf grands médaillons d'or, tous inédits. M. Jean Babelon, du Cabinet des Médailles et M. Duquesnoy, de la Commission historique du Pas-de-Calais, leur ont consacré une très intéressante notice dans laquelle ils montrent l'importance exceptionnelle de la découverte.

Pour répondre au désir de plusieurs amateurs et conservateurs de Musée, nous avons fait faire, par la galvanoplastie, des reproductions de nos six médaillons et des trois de la ville d'Arras qui nous a donné le droit exclusif de les reproduire.

Les pièces, exécutées avec le plus grand soin, en cuivre doré, sont les reproductions parfaitement exactes et fidèles des originaux. Le tirage est limité et chaque exemplaire est numéroté sur la tranche.

Ce médaillon, d'un intérêt capital, commémore l'expédition heureuse de Constance Chlore en Bretagne et son entrée à Londres, au printemps de 296. Nous en empruntons le récit à la notice de MM. Babelon et Duquesnoy :

Constance acheva ses préparatifs en 296; il partagea ses forces en deux flottes, qui furent concentrées, l'une sous son propre commandement, à Gesoriacum (Boulogne-sur-Mer), l'autre à l'embouchure de la Seine, sous l'autorité du préfet de la garde, Asciéplodotus. On mit à la voile dans de mauvaises conditions : la mer était démontée et couverte d'un brouillard impénétrable. Toutefois la Fortune favorisa les audacieux, car ce brouillard même permit à Asciéplodotus de passer sans être signalé au large de l'île de Wight, où l'ennemi l'attendait, et de débarquer sans encombre sur un point de la côte méridionale de Bretagne. Allectus lui-même se trouvait plus à l'est, en face de Gesoriacum, attendant le débarquement de Constance. Un message lui fut alors apporté, annonçant que l'ennemi avait déjà abordé et était en marche vers Londres. Sans attendre d'avoir rassemblé toutes ses troupes, il se hâta d'attaquer Asciéplodotus, avec des troupes fatiguées et bien inférieures en nombre à celles de son adversaire : il subit une complète défaite à Woolmer, entre Liss et Alton (Hampshire), et fut tué au cours du combat. Ce qui échappa au désastre, des soldats francs surtout, se jeta dans Londres, dans l'espoir d'y trouver des vaisseaux pour regagner le pays natal. Cependant, Constance, égaré par le même brouillard qui avait favorisé son lieutenant, arrivait par la Tamise à Londres, après avoir touché la côte bretonne à Rutupiae (Richborough, comté de Kent); il y trouva les fuyards francs pillant la ville et en fit le massacre. Il fut salué comme un libérateur par la population et reconnu pour souverain avec d'autant plus d'enthousiasme que, par prudence politique comme par une heureuse disposition de son caractère, il fit preuve d'une extrême bienveillance.

U.S.A.

Dear Sir,

I beg to confirm Receipt of your enclosed commissions, which I shall endeavour to execute to your entire satisfaction.

I should like however to point out one or two things with regard to the forthcoming auction sales.

Mr Lewis has reserved three coins: the British (no 170) which he would rather keep if it does not bring over 3000 six pences - two other coins in which you are not interested. Would you care to come the British over that figure?

In the French sale, no 358 Carthage which is the gem of the collection may be highly valued. Would you be prepared to go to £1000 for this? In this case be, and give up other commissions in order not to exceed the £40,000 you do not want to exceed.

ALL COMMUNICATIONS SHOULD BE ADDRESSED TO THE COMPANY.
TELEGRAMS: SPINK, PICCY, LONDON. TEL: REGENT 519 & GERRARD 8023.

CODE: A B.C. 5TH OR 6TH EDITION.

I would like to be fixed on these two points
 if you will kindly cable to me by the 14th June Leonard Forret Schweizerhof Lucerne.

Thanking you very much again

I remain

Dear Sir

Yours faithfully

Attached is a list of the numbers of the coins received so far from Spink. A small package of coins is received almost every day. These coins were in four separate packages and came in at different times. As soon as the others are received I will check them and send you the numbers.

Simpson.

They look all right from the pictures. Besides checking the lettering I laid each coin on the picture to see if the outlines were the same.

Dear Sir,

I have just sent you a second cable with regard to your acquisitions at the Paris sale. I trust my selection of items will satisfy you. On the sale notes which will be forwarded to you from London you will notice the remarks I have made on individual coins just to show why I have not bought certain items.

On the Paris coins I have somewhat exceeded the amount you wished to spend on that series namely 12500, exclusive of commission. I did it because your cable enabled me to purchase the Bonaparte for you, and I thought some of the other expensive pieces were worth buying.

The Carthage went for 26200. - We could not have obtained it even higher as I believe it is the last unobscured order from the Carthage.

The Tryphon had a bad scratch runs out of condition, which is not apparent on the plate. The two coins of this were not so good as to warrant paying more than what they fetched.

I shall be glad to receive your criticism on the purchases - should one or the other items not quite meet with your satisfaction, but I have endeavoured to act as if it were for my own collection if I were a collector.

Thanking you very much for your kind

Dear Sir,

We venture to ask you whether you might eventually be interested in the acquisition of one of the most important collections of Magna-Graecian & Sicilian Coins in existence?

The owner, who for the present does not wish his name to be disclosed, is willing to dispose of his collection en bloc, in the United States. He has special reasons for desiring that his Cabinet should not be sold in this country, and we shall esteem it a favour if you will keep the matter confidential, as you are the only person whom we have approached in this connection.

The collection is composed of over 1000 gold, silver & bronze coins; many unique specimens; a number in extremely fine state. The Magna-Graecian series comprises 63 and the Sicilian 41 signed coins by artists.

In our opinion the collection is worth between £25 and £30,000. Should you wish to look through our manuscript catalogue, we shall be pleased to send it over for your perusal.

Dear Sirs:-

I have your letter of November 9th in regard to a most important collection of Magna-Graecian & Sicilian Coins. I am very much obliged to you for writing about this, but I cannot in the first place consider a collection of this magnitude, and in the second place the pleasure which I get out of collecting would, I feel, be largely done away with if I bought collections as a whole.

I have babled you some bids through Mr. Wayte Raymond for the Samborn sale and I hope you will succeed in getting the pieces I want.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir,

We received commissions from Mr. Wayte Raymond on your behalf for the sale of Aes Grave and we are glad to state that we were able to purchase three lots for you, the most important being lot 14, for which we had to exceed your commission a little. This, as you know, is a wonderful coin, and we do not consider that the price is at all excessive.

The lots are being sent you by parcel post insured owing to the weight, and we trust they will reach you safely.
